DESCRIPTION:

JONGERT 2200 | Timeless Elegance, Exceptional Comfort & Bluewater Potential

A remarkable 22.6-metre sailing yacht combining Dutch craftsmanship, generous living spaces and impressive sailing credentials.
Discover the elegance of the Jongert 2200, an exceptional sailing yacht designed for those who appreciate quality, comfort and the freedom to explore under sail. Built in 2006, this impressive 22.6-metre yacht combines the timeless appeal of a sophisticated sailing vessel with the space and amenities required for extended cruising in style.

Her aluminium hull, carbon mast and extensive sail-handling equipment make her an appealing proposition for discerning owners seeking a substantial sailing yacht with both cruising comfort and sailing potential.

Life on board is designed around space and relaxation. The generous interior features four cabins and four bathrooms with separate showers, offering comfortable accommodation for family and guests. Air conditioning, heating, hot water, a fully equipped galley, dishwasher and an onboard entertainment system ensure comfort throughout the seasons.

Her equipment includes a 250 hp STEYR diesel engine, twin steering wheels, hydraulic winches, Furuno navigation electronics, radar, GPS, autopilot, a generator and a watermaker, supporting comfortable and independent life on board.
Whether planning extended Mediterranean cruising, exploring distant coastlines or enjoying memorable sailing holidays with family and friends, this Jongert 2200 offers an attractive combination of space, onboard comfort and classic sailing appeal.

The first yacht in the 2200M series, named Adriana, was launched in 2006. Her proud owner took this high-performance yacht on her maiden voyage.
Designed for light winds and single-handed sailing, the yacht features a displacement of just 42 tonnes, a lifting keel (2.6 to 4.2 m), a carbon rig, a retractable bowsprit, and a spectacular modern interior.
