DESCRIPTION:

JOD 35 - KAISER

It is a class of one-design racing yachts designed by Daniel Andrieu and built at the Jeanneau shipyard.

It is a livable, seaworthy, sporty, and fast boat with a racing crew of seven and a maximum weight of 532 kg.

The JOD 35 embodies a philosophy of speed, simplicity, and quality, making it an attractive option for racing enthusiasts and sailors seeking maximum performance.

Quality, speed, and simplicity: these are the key characteristics that inspired the creation of this new monohull by Daniel Andrieu. It features an attractive design along the waterline, keel, and rudder, an ergonomic deck, and a comfortable cockpit where everything is within easy reach and every adjustment is effortless.

The hull of the Jeanneau One Design 35 (JOD 35) is constructed of laminated fiberglass/polyester, with a design by Daniel Andrieu. It stands out for its high robustness and excellent maneuverability.

Rating IRC (2025): 1,001
